

Dear Sweet Birth Mama,

You Are...

Loved.

Brave.

Beautiful.

Accepted.

Generous.

Wise.

Cherished.

Caring.

Respected.

We may not yet know your name or your specific story, but we believe these things to be true about you. Your decision to make an adoption plan for Baby assures us of these qualities. They are the qualities of a mother. And we know this is just the tip of the iceberg for who you are.

For the tip of the iceberg about us, there are two vitally important things we want you to know. First, know that we love our children fiercely and there has been no greater joy in our lives than being parents. We have had a longing to grow our family through adoption for many years and we heard the still, small voice – we believe, the voice of God – whisper to us that now is the time. Second, know that we love the Lord with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength and that we aspire humbly to be worthy of the call He has put on our lives so that we may bring Him glory, honor, and pleasure in all we do. We are not perfect, but we believe that being imperfect is the perfect place to start. Jesus is everything to us. Our family is a close second. There is so much more to tell you, which you'll see in our profile book, but these two things are the absolute anchors to our lives.

We don't pretend to fully understand what you're going through in heart, mind, and spirit, but we know that we love you already. Your brave step in making an adoption plan has already blessed us beyond measure. We know this decision becomes part of your story for the rest of your life, and hopefully, part of ours too.

With love and great anticipation for what is to come –

Tim & Johanna
