

Dear Birth Family,

Thank you so much for taking the time to look at and learn a little bit about our family. We so appreciate the selfless decision you are making in thinking of placing your child with another family. We know this decision is not made lightly or easily. So please know that we are praying for you and for that sweet baby. Levi and I (Amanda) found out during the summer of 2013 that we were unable to have biological children. We definitely grieved that news but soon felt like the Lord was telling us that we would grow our family through adoption. We adopted our first daughter, Lia Mae, June 2016. We have an open adoption and feel so blessed to have Lia and Lia's birth mother in our lives.

We live in a small mountain town in CO. Levi and I both work for a non-profit ministry called Young Life. We are members of our church and are part of an amazing community in our town. We love small town life and are so grateful for where we live, what we get to do, and the friends we're able to do life with.

Family is a big part of our lives and we are so fortunate to both have wonderful, loving, fun families. Levi's parents, sister, brother-in-law and two nieces all live in CO.

Amanda's family lives in PA and NC. She has two parents, two sisters, two brother inlaws, two nieces, two nephews, one brother, and in June 2018, a sister-in-law.

We are so excited to both meet you and get to know you. We cannot even begin to understand the journey you have been on. We have the utmost respect for you and will continue to pray for you in this process. You truly are our heroes.

Love,
Amanda and Levi
