

Dear Birthparent,

Words cannot express how much we admire your strength and courage in making an adoption plan for your child and appreciate you for taking the time to consider us as potential adoptive parents. While we may not fully realize the pain and weight of making this decision, we want you to know that we will be your biggest encouragers through this process. Though this journey is hard, we will be by your side every step of the way and make every effort to ensure that you are well cared for, supported, and loved.

Though words cannot describe it, the love growing in our hearts for your child is beyond anything imaginable. We vow to love them as our own and strive to show them every day that they are chosen, wanted, and loved. We will pick them up when they fall and delight with them in all their victories. We will be parents that are present and available and will never cease to put them first. Our family will be rooted in Christ alone and never be broken. They will learn to love with a passion and have hearts that are content and full. We will teach them to seek out adventure at every turn and help them build memories that will last a lifetime.

Thank you for your brave and loving choice. We are truly touched by your self-less act of love and are honored to embark on this journey with you. While we know this decision cannot be easy, should you choose us, just know that your child will always know how much they are loved.

Sincerely,

Sean and Sarah
