

Dear Expectant Parent(s),

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about us. You are making such an incredibly brave and selfless decision. We know that you want what is best for your baby, and we will continue to pray for you as you make this journey.

We are Jeff, Amanda, and Noah. Jeff and Amanda met and fell in love in college. We have been married for 15 years and tried to conceive for many years before we felt God's call for us to adopt. In 2018 we were lucky enough to become parents when we adopted our son, Noah. Now, we are excited for the opportunity to give Noah a sibling and complete our family.

Jeff is an accounting manager. He loves all sports. Amanda is a first grade teacher. She loves her students like they are her own children. Noah is a rambunctious 4 year old. He loves music, sports, imaginative play, and superheroes. We are a family that loves spending time together. Some of the things we love to do are watch sports (live or on tv), read, hang out with our family and friends, play with our dog, and travel. We cannot wait to share these activities with another child. Jeff dreams of teaching a little one to throw a baseball and Amanda cannot wait to share her book collection with another baby.

We would love to have an open adoption if this is something you are interested in. God has put an open adoption on our hearts because in order for a child to have a successful life, he/she must know where they came from. We have an open adoption with Noah's birth mom and enjoy sending updates and photos to her as he grows. Whatever you are comfortable with in forms of communication, we are open to discussing.

We know this decision cannot be easy. You are making this decision with love in your heart and your child's best interests in mind. Thank you for considering us.

Love,
Jeff, Amanda, and Noah
