

Hello,

We are Jesse and Sarah! We cannot imagine the incredibly difficult decision that has led you to looking at our profile. Becoming a mother we imagine is scary enough and exploring adoption must only make it even harder! We greatly respect you and your immense love for your child as you explore what is best for both of you.

We have always had the desire to have a family. Even though we didn't expect our first child to come through adoption God has different plans. He has been working on our hearts and healing the wounds that have come with unexplained infertility. However, we are excited to be walking this path to becoming first-time parents and can't wait to see where it leads us.

Jesse and I met in 2009 and have been married for 10 years. Jesse is the oldest of 4 and a Colorado native. He works in Software Engineering and loves to be outdoors Jeeping and camping. Sarah is the oldest of 3 and claims the title of Colorado native since she moved here when she was 4. She is a homemaker and loves outdoor adventures, crafting, cooking, and baking. We have an adorable Welsh Corgi named Harper who is involved in everything we do. He's happiest when his "herd" is together and we know he's going to be great with a new family member added to the pack!

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us a little bit. We will be praying for you as you explore the option of adoption and that you will find peace in the decision you make. We want to bless you on your journey with the blessing we say every Friday evening during our Shabbat dinner, from Numbers 6:22-27:

"The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace."
